

DO I NEED HELP WITH MY GRIEF OR LOSS?

Everyone grieves differently and in their own time

It is perfectly normal to experience anger, sadness, guilt, denial, frustration and even relief

If you answer yes to one or more of the following you will find talking to a professional grief counsellor helpful

- Are you overwhelmed?
- Do you need someone to talk to that is not family?
- Are you feeling confused with how you are feeling?
- Are you coping with day-to-day chores?
- Are you wanting to harm yourself or others?
- Are you unable to stop crying?
- Do you feel uncontrollable rage at times?
- Are you worried about your thoughts or behaviour?

TURNING POINT

.... established in 2005 to support people in the greater Dunedin area, is linked to East Taieri Church which has been a positive contributor to the community for over 160 years

See other brochures for:

- Counselling & Psychotherapy
- Community Education Workshops
- Clinical/Professional Supervision
- Christian Supervision/Spiritual Direction

We aim to keep our costs as low as possible
- - - to do this we seek external funding from various organisations

HOW MANY SESSIONS WILL I NEED?

Often one or two appointments are all that is needed. Some people may benefit from a longer time of support
Your counsellor will be able to give you an indication of number of appointments required after your first session

Contact us to see how we can support you on your journey of grief or loss
