

My Final Wishes

We plan and prepare for most events of our lifetime, yet only a few of us prepare for that final event.

Thinking about your final arrangements now, while you are well, will help you and your family make decisions for the future. This free workshop is for adults of all ages to start thinking about this difficult subject.

Topics include:

Funeral Planning - Clark Campbell, Campbell & Sons Funeral Directors

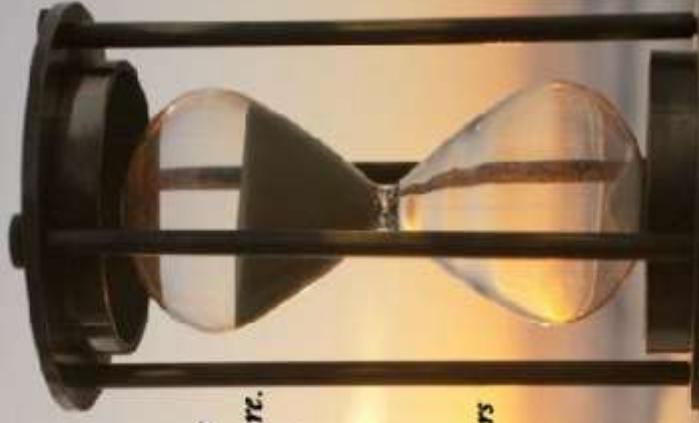

Advanced Care Plans - Ann Donkin, Hospice Nurse

Wills & Powers of Attorney - Liz Dalson, Solicitor, Solomons

Jess Murrehy
Youth Worker

I have been challenged by Revelation 2:4 'You have abandoned the love you had at first.' In this verse Jesus is saying to the church in Ephesus that their love has grown cold. Jesus starts out by saying they have a lot of great qualities, that they are doctrinally sound, they hate works of darkness, they are seeking truth and that they had endured patiently-shown loyalty and dedication to Christ, all the characteristics that would show a wonderful example...or so you would think. However, without love Christ is displeased. Love is what beautifies people and churches and makes them different. I have been reflecting and praying for more love. I have been reading books about God's love, singing about God's love. Asking for the love that bubbles over and oozes out in everything I do like when I first became a follower of Jesus. I ask you to evaluate yourself, have you abandoned the love you had at first? How will you seek to find it again? Let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works Hebrews 10:24.

Building Connectedness and Hospitality

One of our aims from the Strategic Plan 2019-2021 is to 'build connectedness and hospitality in church and communities' by fostering a culture of connectedness & hospitality within East Taieri Church, so that Christians are inspired to build connectedness in their wider community. To help achieve this, from July 2019 we are giving each member of the 10am service an opportunity to serve alongside others by going on the 10am morning tea roster.

Mission Membership gives the opportunity for people to publicly state that they want to be part of this fellowship of believers. All people-whether a mission member or not-are valued in the church. If you are interested in formally becoming a mission member at services on Sunday 7 April please contact Sebastian (Sebastian@etchurch.co.nz or 489 6308 ext 720)

Heather Moore
Children &
Families Worker

Hello Everyone! I just wanted to give you an update on some exciting things I'm involved with at the moment. This year I've taken over leadership of Sugar and Spice and am giving assistance to the Go Girls team in Fairfield. These programmes are a great opportunity to share God with primary school aged girls through crafts and games. We also have a special holiday programme coming up, 15-18 April, leading up to Easter Sunday. Being involved in these various children's ministries is a fun way to make new friends, gain leadership experience, and to be inspired about ways to share more of Christ's teachings with children. If you are interested in helping with these activities or want more information about programmes please get in touch with me: 489 6308 ext 723 or children.families@etchurch.co.nz I'm always happy to chat and hear your awesome ideas! Heather
