TURNING POINT GRIEF CARE

GRIEF CARE / COPING WITH LOSS

He aha te mea nui o te ao

What is the most important thing in the world?

He tangata, he tangata, he tangata

It is the people, it is the people, it is the people

Maori proverb

A listening ear

SOMEONE WHO CARES

We are trained to listen, support you, and help you to find ways to deal with your grief & loss

DO I NEED HELP WITH MY GRIEF OR LOSS?

Everyone grieves differently and in their own time

It is perfectly normal to experience anger, sadness, guilt, denial, frustration and even relief

If you answer yes to one or more of the following you will find talking to a professional grief counsellor helpful

- Are you overwhelmed?
- Do you need someone to talk to that is not family?
- Are you feeling confused with how you are feeling?
- Are you coping with day-to-day chores?
- Are you wanting to harm yourself or others?
- Are you unable to stop crying?
- Do you feel uncontrollable rage at times?
- Are you worried about your thoughts or behaviour?

TURNING POINT

.... established in 2005 to support people in the greater Dunedin area, is linked to East Taieri Church which has been a positive contributor to the community for over 160 years

HOW MANY SESSIONS WILL I NEED?

For some people one or two appointments are all that are needed to help support you through the initial grief reaction. This will include education about grief and loss.

Other people need a longer time of support, especially if the loss is more complicated.

You can discuss openly with your Counsellor about what you need at this time.
